CM race hots up

High Command to decide; Siddharamaiah leaves for Delhi; D.K. Shivakumar waiting for call

KISSA KURSI KA: D.K. Shivakumar Vs Siddharamaiah.

Bengaluru, May 15 (KMS& BCT)- Who will be the new Chief Minister? KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar (DKS) or former CM Siddharamaiah? The suspense over who will become the next Chief Minister of Karnataka continues even as the swearing-in is proposed for May 18 (Thursday). All eyes are on the Congress High Command on their pick for the top post.

Intense lobbying for the CM's post continues between Siddharamaiah and Shivakumar. Siddharamaiah has left for New Delhi this morning and on the other hand, Shivakumar said he has not received a call to visit the National Capital.

As per the latest reports, a majority of the Dalit, minority, tribal and OBC Congress MLAs, especially from the Kalyana Karnataka and Mysuru regions are lobbying hard for Siddharamaiah while the Legislators from coastal, Old Mysuru region and Bengaluru are pitching for Shivakumar.

Highly placed sources told Star of Mysore that while Sonia Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra are favouring Shivakumar as he has done ground-level mobilisation for the party to come to power and also stood by the party physically and financially during multiple crisis situations, Rahul Gandhi is reluctant and is favouring former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah.

24 to 36-month formula floated

Siddharamaiah has urged the High Command to make him CM for two years and he will voluntarily relinquish the post after 24 months, without asking any other party post so that DKS can rule Karnataka for three years.

New CBI Chief Praveen Sood to take charge on May 25

'I had no desire of heading CBI and never expected this; it is Goddess Chamundeshwari's blessings'

Praveen Sood

Mysuru, May 15 (RK&BCT)- Karnataka Director General of Police (DGP) Praveen Sood will be the next Director of the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI), according to a Government Order issued last evening. Sood has been appointed to the post for a period of two years from the date of assuming charge after outgoing CBI Chief Subodh Kumar Jaiswal completes his tenure on May 25.

Jaiswal took over as CBI Director on May 26, 2021. A high-powered panel comprising Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Chief Justice of India D.Y. Chandrachud and Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury met last Saturday to decide on Jaiswal's successor and chose 59-year-old Praveen Sood for the top post.

Besides Sood, the names of Madhya Pradesh DGP Sudhir Saxena and an officer of the UT cadre from the 1987 batch were discussed.

Praveen Sood is the third IPS Officer of Karnataka cadre to be appointed as CBI Chief. The other two were Joginder Singh and D.R. Karthikeyan.

Prabhuling Navadgi quits as State Advocate General

Prabhuling Navadgi

Bengaluru, May 15- With the BJP losing power in the Assembly polls, State Advocate General Prabhuling Navadgi quit his post on Sunday.

Navadgi submitted his resignation letter to Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot at Raj Bhavan here yesterday afternoon.

Navadgi, who was appointed as Advocate General in May 2018 after B.S. Yediyurappa took oath as the Chief Minister, later resigned from the post on May 31 after Yediyurappa failed to prove majority in the Floor of the House. But he was again appointed as the Advocate General after BSY once again became the CM after the collapse of JD(S)-Congress coalition Government in July 2019. Since then he was holding the post and now with the defeat of the BJP, he has tendered his resignation.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The mandate for the Congress in Karnataka is as definitive as it could have been: an absolute majority with 135 seats in the 224-member Assembly garnering support from across regions and demographic groups. The BJP won less than half the number of seats the Congress did, but the party that might have suffered an irreversible slide is the JD(S), which was seen as a family syndicate devoid of any moral compass. Voters could be forgiven for not having known which way the JD(S) would lean after the election. Surely, the opportunism of individual MLAs and JD(S) following a hung Assembly in 2018 weighed heavily on their minds.

Throughout the campaign, the Congress stayed united, focused and dynamic, while BJP leaders sought to settle scores with one another and worked at cross purposes. The Congress showed maturity and composure as the BJP tried to make up for its unpopularity by raking up divisive and extraneous issues.

The Congress and the BJP have lessons to be drawn from the Karnataka verdict. If the BJP truly wants to be a party trusted by all religious and linguistic communities, it must learn to respect them. After its failed strategy in West Bengal in 2021, and now in Karnataka, the party must see the writing on the wall. Its totalising project is harmful not only for itself but also for the nation. A violation of long-cherished and productive regional aspirations is unsettling for national integrity and progress. The attempt to undermine native dairy brand Nandini is a case in point. In a remarkable shift from the past, the Congress acknowledged that it must address questions of caste justice too, while holding on to its opposition to religious sectarianism, and expanding welfarism.

The Congress needs to move beyond the tired rhetoric of the old order and frame a new paradigm that is inclusive towards the regional, religious, class and caste diversities of the country. It has made an experimental beginning in Karnataka. Between the failed experiment of the BJP and the successful one of the Congress, Karnataka voters have imparted important lessons to India's political class. — In The Hindu

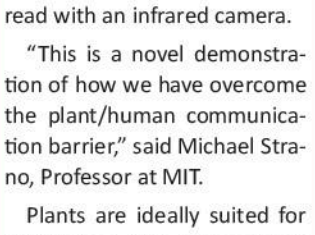
Spinach can now detect explosives



Cambridge: Spinach is no longer just our favourite cartoon character Popeye's superfood – thanks to Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) scientists who have transformed the leafy plants into sensors that can detect explosives within minutes. By embedding leaves with carbon nanotubes, the plants were designed to detect chemical compounds known as nitroaromatics, which are often used in landmines and other explosives.

When one of these chemicals is present in the groundwater sampled naturally by the plant, carbon nanotubes embedded in the plant leaves emit a fluorescent signal that can be read with an infrared camera.

"This is a novel demonstration of how we have overcome the plant/human communication barrier," said Michael Strano, Professor at MIT.

Plants are ideally suited for monitoring the environment because they already take in a lot of information from their surroundings, Strano said.

Fart causes laser to catch fire

Tokyo: The patient, who was undergoing surgery which involved a laser being applied to her cervix, passed gas during the operation and ended up being badly burned.

According to a hospital report, the unfortunately timed fart ignited the laser being used for the surgery. The woman, in her 30s, was left screaming in pain after the fire apparently burnt massive chunks of her body, including the waist and legs, according to reports.

The committee report clarifies that no flammable materials were used in the operation during the surgery and that every other equipment was functioning properly, thus eliminating any possibility of a gas leak from elsewhere that could have cause the fire.

'Youth for Governance Fellowship-2023'

Mysuru, May 15 - To increase youth participation in governance and encourage youths to be agents of change, Participatory Research in Asia (PRIA), Grassroots Research and Advocacy Movement (GRAAM) and Hanns Seidel Foundation (HSF) are conducting a nine-month 'Youth for Governance Fellowship-2023' programme (Y4G programme) in Mysuru.

Y4G programme was inaugurated by Dr. Anil Kumar Dixit from Dixit Arogya Dhama, Mysuru, recently. Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Anil Kumar shared his personal experience of governance at his hostel during his education. He stated that "merely becoming educated does not make one a responsible citizen" but one should participate in the process of governance, either in personal life or in society.

He emphasised the importance of youth participation in democracy and governance and the responsibility of youths in strengthening democratic system.

In his keynote address, Dr. Basavaraju R. Shreshta, Executive Director, GRAAM, shared the status of India and the world index of youth participation in governance. He said that it is not so encouraging to see youths not coming forward and showing civic and political participation.

Highlighting that India ranked 122nd in the recent Youth Development Report, he said "Unless we take care of democracy, democracy will not take care of us." He urged youths to play the role of catalysts by making others understand and appreciate their democratic responsibilities.

Nikita Rakhyani, Lead, Youth Engagement Programmes at PRIA, shared the experience of Y4G-2022. Bhagavan Bidarakote, Sr. Manager, Strategic Consulting, welcomed while Vijai compered.

The programme was attended by about 30 Y4G Fellows from various colleges in Mysuru.

- Hyenas have powerful jaws: A bite that can kill and also crush bones. Spotted hyena jaws have evolved colossal masseter (jaw) muscles to be able to produce massive amounts of force in a specific section of their dentition - the molars and premolars. With the ability to exert over 1,100 psi or around 9,000 newtons (depending on studies), spotted hyenas can crack open bones nearly 2 ½ inches in diameter. This allows hyenas to access the nutrient-rich marrow inside that is inaccessible to most other animals.

After results, EVM machines now back in Warehouse

During non-election period, EVMs cannot be moved out without Election Commission's permission

Mysuru, May 15 (MTY&BCT)- All the Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs), VVPAT (Voter Verifiable Paper Audit Trail) machines and the attached control units and ballot units have been returned to the EVM Warehouse near the new Deputy Commissioner's Office at Siddarthanagar.

In the recently concluded elections in the 11 Constituencies of Mysuru, 3,478 ballot units, 2,938 control units and 3,022 VVPAT machines were used in the 2,905 polling booths. The number of machines is higher as many of them were kept as back-up and also some of them were used for mock polling.

But as no technical snags were witnessed in any of the booths, the back-up machines were returned as-is. Elaborate numbering, randomisation and other secure processes were undertaken as security of EVMs usually becomes the centre of controversy in all elections.

In Periyapatna, 235 EVMs, VVPATs and control units were used, 250 in K.R. Nagar, 273 in Hunsur, 282 in H.D. Kote, 249 in Nanjangud, 337 in Chamundeshwari, 265 in Krishnaraja, 244 in Chamaraja, 282 in Narasimharaja, 261 in Varuna and 227 EVMs, VVPATs and control units were used in T. Narasipur.

Before the mustering was carried out, 3,452 machines were brought out from the Warehouse and over 18 machines were replaced even before the polling started by the engineers of Electronics Corporation of India Limited (ECIL) that manufactured the machines.

Over 14 EVMs and 96 VVPATs were replaced during the polls. The replacement process was done to dispel any doubts in the minds of officers and voters. After the polling and counting, all the polled and unused machines were transported only in GPS-enabled vehicles so that their movement can be tracked by the District Election Officer.

All the EVMs are normally stored in a treasury or a warehouse under the direct control of the District Electoral Officer or the Deputy Commissioner. The warehouse is secured by a double lock, guarded round the clock by Policemen or security guards, and is also under CCTV surveillance.

At the Warehouse, the EVMs are set according to the Assembly Constituencies and there is enough space in the building for all the Constituencies in Mysuru. During a non-election period, EVMs cannot be moved out of the warehouse without specific instructions from the Election Commission.

Poll results have shown development is not the only mantra for winning: V. Somanna

"I contested from Varuna and Chamarajanagar as per BJP High Command's decision, but lost both"

Bengaluru, May 15- A day after he lost from both Varuna and Chamarajanagar Assembly segments, former Minister V. Somanna said that he contested from the two high stakes Constituencies as per the BJP High Command's decision.

V. Somanna

Speaking to presspersons here yesterday, Somanna shared his feelings with the media thus: "What have I got to say when I have lost from both the Constituencies. I took the Assembly polls contest as a challenge which I however failed to succeed. I was a sitting MLA from Bengaluru's Govindarajanagar, which was dear to me. But now everything is past. At present, I am jobless. I just obeyed the Party's orders and contested from Varuna and Chamarajanagar."

When asked whether the BJP had sidelined B.S. Yediyurappa (BSY), Somanna replied in the negative.

Maintaining that the BJP went to polls under BSY's guidance, he said it is true that the BJP has suffered a serious setback with the loss of Assembly polls. But that is not the end, he said adding that the party will move on under the leadership of Prime Minister Modi, who has been leading the country magnificently for the past 9 years.

He further said that he had asked the party ticket for his son Dr. Arun Somanna, which however, was not entertained by the BJP leadership. Everything happens as per destiny, he remarked.

Asserting that time alone would tell the answer for everything, Somanna said he was a hard worker and it is disappointing that the people rejected him. He further said that the poll results have shown that development is not the only mantra for winning.

Now that the Congress is coming to power, Somanna batted for KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar as the next Chief Minister. Arguing that Siddharamaiah has become the Chief Minister once, he said that now it should be the turn of Shivakumar. However, it is upto the Congress High Command to take a decision on who should be the CM, he added.

Shah and Santosh call Somanna

Meanwhile, Union Home Minister Amit Shah and BJP National Organising Secretary B.L. Santosh called Somanna over phone and spoke some comforting words to help him overcome the defeat.

The two, who spoke to Somanna soon after the results were out on Saturday, said this was an unexpected result and the party would take the people's mandate in its stride.

Admitting that the party's calculations went wrong, they said that they and the party would always stand by him. They also told him that he should not lose confidence and continue with his good work.

BJP leader Renukacharya quits electoral politics

Renukacharya

Davanagere, May 15- A day after he lost the Assembly polls from Honnali in Davanagere, BJP leader Renukacharya said that he was quitting from electoral politics.

Speaking to media here yesterday, Renukacharya who lost the Honnali seat to D.G. Shantanagouda of Congress, said he was deeply disappointed with the verdict. "I have decided to quit electoral politics. However, I will work for the candidate fielded by BJP in future polls", he declared adding that the poll result was unexpected. After he got elected from Honnali in 2018, Renukacharya served as the Political Secretary of BJP CMs B.S. Yediyurappa and Basavaraj Bommai.

City Newspaper Distributor's daughter becomes a Doctor

Dr. N. Suma Bharathi seen receiving MBBS degree certificate from Jayadeva Hospital Director Dr. C.N. Manjunath during the Graduation Ceremony held recently at Adichunchanagiri Institute of Medical Sciences (AIMS) in Bellur, Mandya. Others seen are Adichunchanagiri University Chancellor Dr. Sri Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji, Vice-Chancellor Dr. M.A. Shekar, AIMS Principal & Dean Dr. M.G. Shivaramu, Suma's mother Nagalambike, father Nagaraju and brother N. Karna (both Newspaper Distributors in Mysuru).

Mysuru, May 15- Dr. N. Suma Bharathi, daughter of city's Newspaper Distributor Nagaraju and Nagalambike couple, has realised her dreams of becoming a doctor, with Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences (RGUHS) awarding her MBBS Degree Certificate.

Suma Bharathi, who pursued her dreams with total dedication and determination, excelled in NEET exam without special coaching and succeeded in getting a Government seat in Adichunchanagiri Institute of Medical Sciences (AIMS) at Bellur on Bengaluru-Mangaluru Highway in Nagamangala taluk of Mandya district, setting aside the common perception that only influence and money can get a medical seat.

Despite his financial constraints, Nagaraj, who has been working as a Newspaper Distributor for the past 40 years, put in great efforts to help his daughter achieve her goal of becoming a doctor.

Suma is now preparing for the entrance exam for admission to MD (Doctor of Medicine) course. She aims to pursue the MD course herself without burdening her parents, who have struggled hard to provide education to her.

Dr. Suma Bharathi was awarded the MBBS degree certificate by Bengaluru Jayadeva Hospital Director Dr. C.N. Manjunath at the AIMS Graduation Ceremony held at Bellur recently.

Her parents Nagaraju and Nagalambike, brother N. Karna were beside her on stage when she received the certificate.

Meanwhile, Nagaraju has expressed gratitude to Mysuru District Newspaper Distributors Association, former MLA Vasu and newspaper readers for helping his daughter with financial aid, study materials, stationeries and other small contributions.

New CBI Chief Praveen Sood to take charge on May 25

A pleasant surprise

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Praveen Sood said that he would take charge on May 25. "It came as a pleasant surprise as I harboured no desire or ambition to occupy the top post in the CBI. I never expected this and it is the blessings of Goddess Chamundeshwari and I will serve the nation to the best of my abilities. I am happy to earn the trust of PM Modi, the Chief Justice of India and the Selection Committee Members," he said.

Sood said that he will definitely visit Sri Chamundeshwari Temple atop the Chamundi Hill in Mysuru soon and seek her blessings to perform well and also to safeguard the interests of the nation in a responsible way.

Meanwhile, with Sood's imminent exit, the State Government has to prepare a list of senior most eligible IPS Officers for the post of DG&IGP. According to the seniority list, 1987 batch IPS Officer Alok Mohan is in the top place. Presently, Mohan is DGP for Home Guards and is due to superannuate in April 2025.

Hailing from Kangra in Himachal Pradesh, Sood did his graduation from IIT-Delhi and joined the IPS at the age of 22. He joined the Indian Police Service in 1986 and served as Assistant Superintendent of Police, Mysore, in 1989. He also served as Superintendent of Police in Bellary and Raichur before being posted as Deputy Commissioner of Police (Law and Order) in Bengaluru city.

It may be mentioned here that Praveen Sood had served as Police Commissioner of Mysuru city from 2004 to 2007. During his tenure, he worked extensively on terrorists network including those of Pakistan origin.

In 1999, Sood went on foreign deputation as Police Advisor to the Government of Mauritius for three years. Sood has also served as Principal Secretary in the Karnataka Home Department and DGP of the Criminal Investigation Department, Economic Offences and Special Units. He was appointed as Karnataka DG&IGP in 2020.

Issue with DKS

In March, ahead of the recently held Karnataka Assembly elections, KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar (DKS) had slammed Sood for allegedly favouring the BJP Government. Shivakumar had even called the DGP "nalayak" (incompetent) and said the party would take strict action against him after coming to power.

"Immediately, there should be a case against him and he should be arrested. The Election Commission should remove him. Let our government come, we will take action against him," Shivakumar had said. But now, Praveen Sood will move to Delhi to assume the role of CBI Director for the next two years.

CM race hots up: High Command to decide

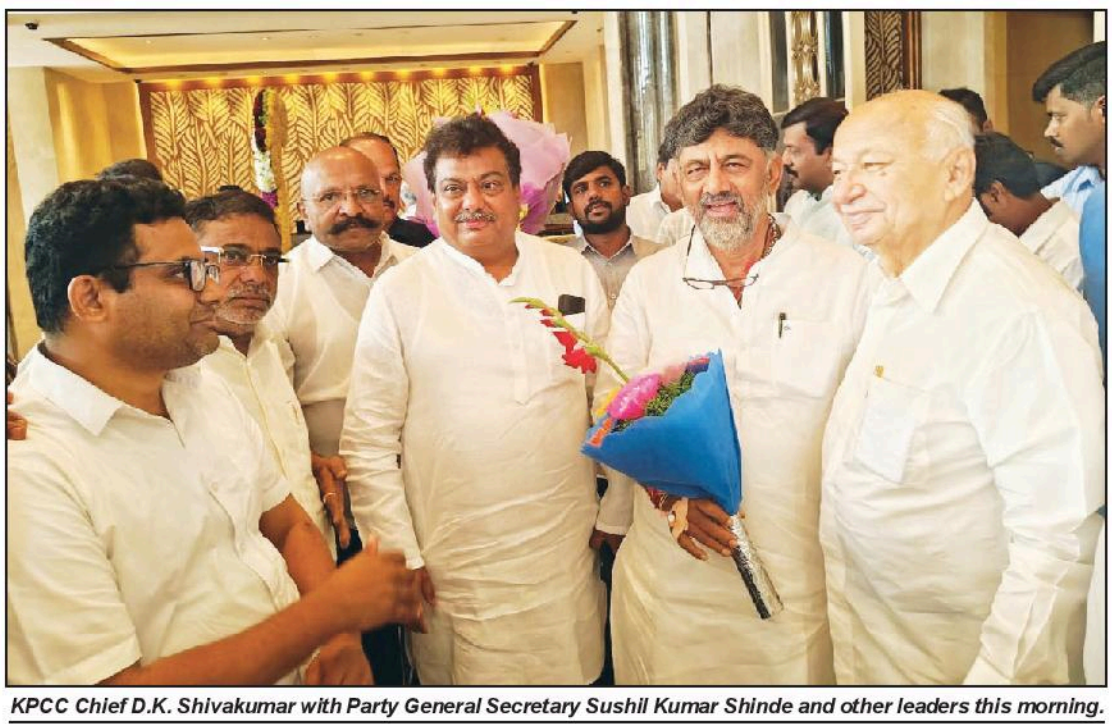
On his part, Shivakumar has told the leaders that he should be considered to rule the State for two years and Siddharamaiah could be the CM for three years. He has also suggested that Siddharamaiah can accept KPCC President's post for the first two years. It is to be seen if this formula is finalised by the High Command.

When asked whether he will be appointed the CM, Shivakumar said: "I don't know. I have done whatever job was given to me. We have sent a one-line resolution to Delhi." On whether he has been asked to come to the national capital by the High Command, he said: "I have not received any call yet. Let's see."

Observers return

The three Central Observers — former Maharashtra CM Sushil Kumar Shinde, party General Secretary Jitendra Singh and former AICC General Secretary Deepak Babaria — deputed by the Congress returned to Delhi this morning after speaking individually to the newly-elected MLAs. They were accompanied by Karnataka party in-charge Randeep Surjewala and will hand over the report on the views expressed by the majority of the MLAs to party President Mallikarjun Kharge later in the day. Kharge will take a decision on who will be the next CM and he will hold consultations with top Congress leadership, including Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi.



KPCC Chief D.K. Shivakumar with Party General Secretary Sushil Kumar Shinde and other leaders this morning.

The Observers spoke individually to all the MLAs and sought their opinion on who should be the CM. They spoke after dinner at a private hotel last night and completed the process late at night.

Slogan war at hotel

Earlier, during the meeting of the Congress Legislature Party (CLP), the MLAs passed a one-line resolution authorising the party President to appoint the CLP Leader who would be the next CM. This was done amidst a slogan war between supporters of Shivakumar and Siddharamaiah outside the venue of the meeting, each section wanting their leader to be the next CM.

Pontiff appeals to High Command

Meanwhile, Adichunchanagiri Mutt Seer Dr. Sri Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji said that he will appeal to Congress High Command to announce D.K. Shivakumar as the Chief Minister.

He said that Shivakumar had a major contribution to Congress winning the Karnataka Assembly election and forming the Government. He also requested them to consider Shivakumar's service and cooperate in making him the CM.

"We request all the seniors right from Sonia Gandhi, Rahul Gandhi, Mallikarjun Kharge and Siddharamaiah to give Shivakumar an opportunity to run the administration and serve the society," the Seer said.

He added that Shivakumar had suffered a lot while discharging his duty. "We all saw tears in his eyes yesterday, which were a mix of joy and pain. The man who toiled so much should get the result," the Pontiff said.

'Theatre is not limited to entertainment alone'

Senior theatre artiste Prof. S.R. Ramesh inaugurates 10-day acting workshop

Mysuru, May 15 (PM)- "An actor should keep in mind that theatre is not just a tool of entertainment but a reflection of the society," said senior theatre artiste Prof. S.R. Ramesh. He was speaking after inaugurating the 10-day acting workshop organised jointly by Parivartana Ranga Samaja and Namana Kala Vedike at Namana Kala Mantapa in Krishnamurthypuram here yesterday.

"Theatre is not limited to entertainment. Giving message and creating awareness too becomes important here. Theatre should act as a reflection of the society by adapting the social behaviour into theatre. Hence, an actor should understand this intention and responsibility," he observed.

"In acting, dialogue delivery and body language are very important. Hence, the workshop will focus more on these two factors. Acting becomes easy, if one has even minimum knowledge of theatre. So, along with acting skills, an actor should know various other factors involved in acting," said the senior theatre artiste adding that these days many are attracted towards theatre and the number of people taking up theatre has increased manifold.

Senior theatre artiste Anuradha Nandakumar, who too spoke on the occasion, said: "It is said that in communication, only 7% is vocal and rest 93% is through body language. If an actor understands this, then he can gain proficiency in acting skills."

A total of 10 members are participating in the acting workshop which will be held between 6 pm and 8.30 pm everyday.

Workshop Director R. Yashaswini, Parivarthana Ranga Samaja Secretary Madhava Khare and others were present during the inauguration.

WORD OF THE DAY

Unctuous

Pronunciation: UNK-chuh-wus.
Meaning: Unctuous is a formal word used to describe someone who speaks and behaves in a way that is meant to seem friendly and polite but that is unpleasant because it is obviously not sincere. It can also mean "fatty," "oily," and "smooth and greasy in texture or appearance."
Origin: Nowadays, unctuous usually has a negative connotation, but it originated as a term describing a positive act: that of healing. The word comes from the Latin verb unguere ("to anoint"), a root that also gave rise to the words unguent ("a soothing or healing salve") and ointment. The oily nature of ointments may have led to the use of unctuous to describe things marked by an artificial gloss of sentimentality. An unctuous individual may mean well, but the person's insincere effusiveness can leave an unwelcome residue — much like that of some ointments.
Example: "The fate of a sycophant is never a happy one. At first, you think fawning over boss is a good way to move forward. But when you are dealing with a narcissist... you can never be unctuous enough."— Maureen Dowd

THE ODD WORD

Umstroke

Circumference; edge.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Under wraps

Meaning: A thing is 'under wraps' if it is concealed from public view, with only a few insiders being aware of it.
Origin: The commonplace literal meaning of something that is under wraps is that it is wrapped up. There might seem little else to say about this expression which might be thought not even to qualify as an idiomatic phrase. The meaning of 'under wraps' is similar to that of 'under your hat', however, the derivation of the two is very different. In fact, 'under wraps' doesn't refer to concealment by wrapping, it is a horse-racing practice where a jockey slows down a horse by wrapping the reins around the hands, either to avoid tiring the horse or in order to conceal its true racing ability. The expression has something in common with another horse-racing term, in that it is widely misunderstood but also relates to trickery - 'dead ringer'. The expression 'under wraps' was explained by G. Clark Cummings in the December 1956 issue of American Speech: Jockey Ted Atkinson wrote me the following: "The phrase breezed under wraps simply means breezed [exercised] under more than ordinary restraint - double wraps is also used..."
